Prayers of Intercession

Lord, we pray. For those of us who are struggling to understand your almighty plan for the world. For those of us who, like the disciples walking with Jesus, failed to see him with them. For those of us who are losing our faith and losing our way. For those of us who are feeling lost and do not know your presence close to them.

Lord, we pray. For those who are facing rising costs and are unable to afford fuel for heating and for their cars as prices go up. For those who daily face decisions about what to spend their last money on. For those who have never known the comfort of having savings to fall back on. For those making decisions about money and tax that will affect everyone.

Lord, we pray. For those who govern and rule and other leaders too. For caution, wisdom and a desire for peace to be present in all of their thinking and saying. For care to be taken in what is made public to avoid an escalation of death and destruction. For calm and caution to replace aggression and threatening words. For peace to reign.

Lord, we pray. For those who have suffered the loss of someone close to them. For those lost in the darkness of sadness and depression. For those gripped by addiction, and those who are sick and ill and needing healing and peace. For those in our own community who need to know your presence alongside them right now.

Lord, we pray. For those who are facing a busy and challenging week with pressure at work, college or school. For those who have tough decisions to make. For those who would dearly love to be in friendship and harmony with people they have fallen out with. For all of us as we live this coming week as God's servants and people who are listening and learning from Jesus.

Amen
